

Individual Italian course in Venice

You can start this course at any time of the year. The timetable, its duration and the amount of hours are decided according to your requests. The programme is made to suit your requirements. The minimum duration is 5 hours.

This is ideal if you are not free everyday, if you to take a crash course that only lasts a few days, or if you are not suited to group courses or you want to improve particular aspects of the language for work and study related reasons.

Semi-individual courses and mini-groups

We can organise the same type of course also for mini-groups (two, three, four students of the same level who enrol together).
